September Newsletter

Spring is upon us once again. That last month of winter certainly wreaked havoc with our skin and hair.

Thankfully I have an awesome NEW treatment to help combat the effects of those westerly winds.

SHIRODHARA

Is an ancient method of mind relaxation and detoxification benefitting the nervous system. The ritual begins with a foot, hand and scalp massage. Followed by a continual stream of warm oil onto the forehead to immediately calm and balance the mind, body and spirit.
