Some other areat gift ideas.....

Diffusers are a wonderful addition to any room. I have them in the kitchen, bedroom, study and of course my work room. I use different oils depending on the mood I wish to create. In the morning it's usually but not limited to something citrus or minty, of an evening some balance or lavender to quieter it down. I have them in stock.

DoTerra Bils.....

DoTerra oils are 100% pure therapeutic grade essential oils sourced from around the world. They are a product I have used and trusted for several years now. There is practically an oil for everything. Ask me for assistance or information if required. I love talking oils and how they can help you, your family and friends. Click on the link above for a direct purchase or I have them Available in clinic.

Motivated?

Do you ever feel like you lack enthusiasm or need a little something to get you going? Some inspiration perhaps? Motivate combines peppermint, Yuzu, clementine to put you in the right frame of mind and encourage you to get on with your day whether that's getting to work or the kids off to school, paperwork, housework, an assignment or to the gym. Again, these are available for purchase through the link above or from me at the clinic.

I would like to take this opportunity to wish you all a very Merry Christmas and an even better New Year. I will be taking some time off over this period, from 22nd December through to and including 1st January. Available for appointments from 2nd January.

Cancellation Policy

REMINDER: You will notice that when you receive your appointment reminder a cancellation fee is charged if less than 24 hours notice is given. I understand situations arise, giving you reason to cancel, but the reality is every cancellation affects my income in a major way. Every attempt will be made to fill your appointment and if this is possible the fee will be waivered. This is why I have been sending regular emails with availability spots. The more notice you can provide, the better.

You don't have to be born beautiful to be wildly attractive.

Till next time....

Katrina
